HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. "Protected health information" is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you and that relates to your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and related health services.

1. Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, our office staff and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, to pay your health care bills, to support the operation of the company, and any other use required by law.

Treatment: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to you. For example, your protected health information may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

Healthcare Operations: We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physician's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical students that see patients at our office. In addition we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your physician. We may also call you by name when your physician is ready to see you. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment.

We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as Required By Law, Public Health issues as required by law, Communicable Diseases: Health Oversight: Abuse or Neglect: Food and Drug Administration requirements: Legal Proceedings: Law Enforcement: Coroners, Funeral Directors, and Organ Donation: Research: Criminal Activity: Military Activity and National Security: Worker's Compensation: Inmates: Required Uses and Disclosures: Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the regulations of Section 164.500.

Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures Will be made only with your consent, authorization or opportunity to object unless required by law.

You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the physician's practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

Your Rights

Following is a statement of your rights with respect to your protected health information

You have the right to issue and copy your protected health information. Under Federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records; psychotherapy notes, information compiled in reasonable anticipation or, or in use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding, and protected health information that is subject to law that prohibits access to protected health information.

You have the right to request a restriction of your protected health information. This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purpose of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of your protected health information not to be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply

Your physician is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. If your physician believes that it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of your protected health information, your protected health information will not be restricted. You then have the right to use another Healthcare Professional.

You have the right to request to receive confidential communication from us by alternative mean means or at an alternative location. You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, upon request, even if you have agreed to accept this notice alternatively i.e. electronically.

You may have the right to have your physician amend your protected health information. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your protected health information.

We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and will inform you by mail of any changes. You then have the right to object or withdraw as provided in this notice.

Complaints

You may complain to us or the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us. You may file a complaint with us by notifying our privacy contract of your complaint. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

This notice was published and became effective on/or before April 14, 2003.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of, and provide individuals with, this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. If you have any objections to this form, please ask to speak with our HIPPA Compliance Officer in person or by phone at our main phone number.

Signature below is only acknowledgement that you have received this Notice of our Privacy Practices:

Client Email/Texting Informed Consent Form

1. Risk of using email/texting

The transmission of client information by email and/or texting has a number of risks that clients should consider prior to the use of email and/or texting. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

- a. Email and texts can be circulated, forwarded, stored electronically and on paper, and broadcast to unintended recipients.
- b. Email and text senders can easily misaddress an email or text and send the information to an undesired recipient.
- c. Backup copies of emails and texts may exist even after the sender and/or the recipient has deleted his or her copy.
- d. Employers and on-line services have a right to inspect emails sent through their company systems.
- e. Emails and texts can be intercepted, altered, forwarded or used without authorization or detection.
- f. Email and texts can be used as evidence in court.
- g. Emails and texts may not be secure and therefore it is possible that the confidentiality of such communications may be breached by a third party.

2. Conditions for the use of email and texts

Provider cannot guarantee but will use reasonable means to maintain security and confidentiality of email and text information sent and received. Provider is not liable for improper disclosure of confidential information that is not caused by Provider's intentional misconduct. Clients/Parent's/Legal Guardians must acknowledge and consent to the following conditions:

- a. Email and texting is not appropriate for urgent or emergency situations. Provider cannot guarantee that any particular email and/or text will be read and responded to within any particular period of time.
- b. Email and texts should be concise. The client/parent/legal guardian should call and/or schedule an appointment to discuss complex and/or sensitive situations.
- c. All email will usually be printed and filed into the client's medical record. Texts may be printed and filed as well.
- d. Provider will not forward client's/parent's/legal guardian's identifiable emails and/or texts without the client's/parent's/legal guardian's written consent, except as authorized by law.
- e. Clients/parents/legal guardians should not use email or texts for communication of sensitive medical information.
- f. Provider is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the client or any third party.
- g. It is the client's/parent's/legal guardian's responsibility to follow up and/or schedule an appointment if warranted.

Client Acknowledgement and Agreement

I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand this consent form. I understand the risks associated with the communication of email and/or texts between my provider and me, and consent to the conditions and instructions outlined, as well as any other instructions that my Provider may impose to communicate with me by email or text.

In the event that your physician, in his or her clinical judgment believes you to be dangerous to yourself or to someone else, by signing this consent you authorize her to contact either the person listed as your emergency contact or someone else to provide assistance through this crisis situation. INITIAL _____

Coverage/Emergencies

If you have a life-threatening emergency, please go to the nearest emergency room or call 911. In an emergency situation, the office manager can be reached after hours and messages forwarded to your physician. Calls are returned as soon as possible; however, in the event that your physician is unavailable, you may call the Suicide and Crisis Center at any time. You may be treated by one of our covering Psychiatrist on call during any inpatient hospitalization. Non-emergency phone calls will be returned the following business day. INITIAL _____

Medication Refill Policy

There is a $25.00 charge for each prior authorization that our office is required to obtain. This fee has to be paid before the prior authorization is processed, for medications that are not listed on the formulary list for your insurance company. The Clinic advises each patient to obtain a copy of your formulary list prior to your visit, to ensure that the medications being prescribed are covered by your insurance company, and to give you the opportunity to discuss alternatives if possible. This will help to avoid charges incurred secondary to this policy

The Clinic does not refill prescriptions through pharmacies, please ensure that you check your medications and bring a list of medications that need to be refilled to your office visit. If you need a prescription refilled, it is important to have this done at the time of your appointment. If for any reason you need a prescription refilled outside of your appointment time there will be a $25.00 charge. I understand that a prescription request needs to be made 72 hours in advance and non-emergency messages regarding the prescription medication will be returned in 72 business hours. Medication requests are addressed only during business hours.

If you have read and understand these aspects of consent, please sign below. If you would like a copy of this consent form, for your records, the Clinic will be happy to provide you with one. If you have any questions about any of the information on this form, discuss them with your physician and wait to sign the form with the Clinic. Insurance questions may be addressed by Clinic personnel. By signing this form you acknowledge that all questions have been fully answered and you agree to terms of this agreement. INITIAL _____

Electronic Signatures

I agree that if this agreement or related documents are signed when party's signature are delivered by fax, email or any other electronic medium. These signatures are and must be treated in all respects as having the same force and effect as original signatures. INITIAL _____

Termination of Services

I understand and agree that I am entering into a therapeutic relationship with my provider. The success of the treatment is contingent upon active participation and constant attendance. More than three No Shows will result in termination of services. Your file will be closed after 60 days of zero communication and no appointments.

My signature below affirms that I have read and understood the service agreement and office policies of the Clinic. I acknowledge that all of my questions have been fully answered. I further acknowledge, understand and agree that such terms may be amended from time to time to meet the needs of the clinic.
